

THE MOOG CENTER FOR DEAF EDUCATION
presents

Early Intervention:
The Earlier They Get Started,
The Faster They Learn to Talk

A Workshop for Teachers and SLP's working with children birth to three who are deaf and hard of hearing

Thursday, February 16, 2012, beginning at 8:30 a.m. through Saturday, February 18, 2012 ending at 3:00 p.m.

This workshop is designed for teachers, SLPs and developmental therapists who provide early intervention services to children with a hearing loss. Strategies for working with very young children to help them develop spoken language skills will be presented. Presentations will also focus on techniques for helping parents work with their own children. This very interactive workshop will offer live demonstrations, language simulation and plenty of hands-on experiences. This workshop is based on the very popular book, "My Baby and Me: A Book About Teaching Your Child to Talk" - more information about this book can be found at the Bookstore at www.moogcenter.org.

Topics:

- ◆ Early Intervention Curriculum for Working with Parents
- ◆ Coaching Strategies
- ◆ Implementing an Effective 60 Minute Session
- ◆ Modeling and Imitation: A Teaching Technique for Encouraging Spoken Language
- ◆ Realistic Expectations for Very Young Children
- ◆ Introduction to Hearing Loss
- ◆ Introduction to Hearing Aids and Cochlear Implants
- ◆ Hands-on Sessions with Parents and Children
