“Universal Newborn Hearing Screening: A Caregiver’s Practical Guide”

This 16 minute closed-captioned videotape is an educational resource for healthcare providers involved in childbirth classes, hospital hearing screening programs, and follow-up clinics. It is designed to empower caregivers with practical information pertinent to promoting a healthy bond between parent and infant, keeping referrals for diagnostic evaluation to a minimum, and connecting families with follow-up services so that hearing loss in infants can be successfully identified, tracked, and managed.

The video is used regularly by Connecticut’s Department of Public Health for educational forums, and has been distributed to all of Connecticut’s birthing hospitals to help train personnel.

ANNOUNCING A NEW VIDEOTAPE

Universal Newborn Hearing Screening A Caregiver's Practical Guide

This 16 Minute videotape is an educational resource for healthcare providers involved in childbirth classes, hospital hearing screening programs, and follow-up clinics. It is designed to empower caregivers with practical information pertinent to promoting a healthy bond between parent and infant, keeping referrals for diagnostic evaluation to a minimum and connecting families with follow-up services so that the hearing loss in infants can be successfully identified, tracked and managed.

"The video covers all aspects of universal newborn hearing screening. The information is comprehensive and is presented in a clear concise manner, making it useful for parents as well as professionals. It could readily be incorporated into hospital programs, prenatal classes or public awareness campaigns."

Antonia Brancia Maxon, Ph.D., Chair,
Connecticut's Newborn Hearing Screening
Task Force

"Very well done. An important videotape for early intervention professionals, nurses, physicians and parents to view. It takes the mystery out of an important process."

Deborah Richards, Regional Manager
Connecticut's Birth to Three system

"The newborn hearing screening video is fascinating! It is a clear, concise demonstration and explanation of the painless and unobtrusive process of testing an infant's hearing. This production is a public service treasure."

Diane Wixted, Connecticut's Commission on the Deaf and Hearing Impaired
